Hon. Albert Conway
The Court of Appeals of the State of New York
Albany, New York

Dear Albert:

I am just in receipt of your very kind letter of November 16th.

I of course very much regret that you will not be able to attend the dinner tonight, but I fully understand the reasons for your absence. I know what a great load of work the Court of Appeals carries at all times. The burden must be increased now because of the illness of Judge Thacker.

Edith and I spent the weekend in Cleveland with Hilda Jane and her little family. I am sure that you will be interested to know that her marriage has turned out very well indeed. She has a lovely little girl and expects another baby in February.

With kindest regards to you and Mrs. Conway, in which Edith joins me, I am

Very sincerely yours,
