Davis Takes Oath As Stabilization Chief Before Douglas

By the Associated Press.

William H. Davis today finished his term as War Labor Board chairman and was sworn in as economic stabilization director.

Associate Justice William O. Douglas of the Supreme Court administered the oath to Mr. Davis in the boardroom of the WLB and immediately thereafter performed the same service for Dr. George W. Taylor, who succeeds Mr. Davis. Secretary of Labor Perkins congratulated both Mr. Davis and Dr. Taylor.