WHEREAS the Honorable Herbert H. Lehman has never failed to respond to the call of our industry and our union for aid in solving our problems, and

WHEREAS ever since 1924, when Governor Alfred E. Smith appointed him to the Advisory Commission of the Coat and Suit Industry, he has served our industry on numerous occasions when he was Lieutenant-Governor and continued to render distinguished service to the women's garment industry in solving its intricate labor-management problems even as he moved from Lieutenant Governor to the Governor's Mansion, and

WHEREAS he has once again heeded the call for his help and has come out of his well-earned retirement in this year of 1958 to give once more the benefit of his keen and resourceful mind, his vast experience and wisdom to help resolve a strike in the dress industry involving knotty and complex issues and differences between the parties, THEREFORE

BE IT

RESOLVED that this meeting of shop chairmen at Manhattan Center on March 11, 1958, hereby unanimously expresses its wholehearted gratitude, on behalf of 105,000 dressmakers, to the Honorable Herbert H. Lehman for his tremendously important service as a mediator of the strike now ended, and BE IT FURTHER

RESOLVED that we also take this opportunity of voicing our admiration to him for a life of constructive and fruitful labor and dedication to worthy causes and high principles for which we pay tribute to him as one of the great Americans of our time.
