Hon. Herbert H. Lehman
Senate Office Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Senator:

Through several good friends of mine, I have become interested in the case of Pierre Brodin who is, at present, deprived of the privilege of returning home to France principally because, as I understand it, he did not serve in either the French or American Armed Forces during World War II.

There is no question that Professor Brodin who is associated in the leadership of the French Institute of New York, is not a valuable citizen caught in the web of a technicality which makes it impossible to visit his aging parents in Paris. I believe his case is deserving of special consideration and possibly the introduction of a Bill which would declare him an exception.

I rather think Mr. Welch in your office knows about this case in some detail and I would deeply appreciate your good offices in obtaining the help needed to allow Dr. Brodin to visit his parents this summer.

Very sincerely yours,
