General Dwight D. Eisenhower
Supreme Allied Commander
Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe
Paris, France

Dear General Eisenhower:

This will introduce my brother-in-law, Mr. Frank Altschul.

Mr. Altschul, long one of the leading business men of New York, is now devoting substantially all of his time to public affairs. He was one of the founders and an officer of the National Committee for a Free Europe and the Crusade for Freedom. He went abroad with Mrs. Altschul partly to visit the newly-created radio installations of Crusade for Freedom.

I know how busy you are, and it may be that you cannot see him. If you do find time, I know that he will greatly enjoy and be honored to meet you. He is unusually well informed and deeply interested in the work of the two committees which he is serving. I have asked him to bring you my warmest regards.

Yours very sincerely,
