New York Herald Tribune, June 18, 1948

Eisenhower Installation

Formal Ceremony at Columbia
Scheduled for Oct. 12

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who became the thirteenth president of Columbia University on June 7, will be formally installed on Tuesday, Oct. 12, it was announced yesterday by Professor Grayson Kirk, of the Department of Public Law. Professor Kirk heads a committee representing the faculty, alumni and students which will plan the installation program in co-operation with the board of trustees.

General Eisenhower's installation will be the second of a Columbia president since the university has been on its present site at Morningside Heights. The late Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler was installed there on April 19, 1902.