Sir Governor,

I trust the mood my sentence voice of free thinking and good winter amidst the tumult of Governor that will accept your second passage.

No Governor ever entered his second term more properly.
truly - with deeper confidence, more unequivocally declared on the part of the people of the Halaka with more far-reaching criteria of Halaka, peace, and unity. Calling for the courage and wisdom. Shall the whole are eager to realize it soon. A large natural well-Comes large crises for her problems. And in your example you will be overcome not only of head gone back in the West country.

Well see you write.

Sincerely,
