June 24, 1939.

His Excellency,
The British Ambassador,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Ambassador:

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind letter of June 13th, together with the inscribed photographs of Their Britannic Majesties.

I am greatly honored that Their Majesties have sent me their photographs which I shall always greatly prize. May I ask you to express to Their Majesties my sincere thanks and that of Mrs. Lehman for their consideration of us.

It was a great pleasure and honor to participate in the wholehearted welcome which the American people gave to Their Majesties. The demonstration with which Their Majesties were met wherever they went showed the affection and high regard in which they are held by the American people. I am convinced that the royal visit will be of great and lasting value to both of our countries.

With kind personal regards, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,
