May 23, 1940

My dear Governor Lehman:

The University of the State of New York invites you and Mrs Lehman to attend a reception on the occasion of the opening of an exhibit of the State's most precious historical treasures, to be held in the Governor's Suite in the New York State Building at the New York World's Fair of 1940, Flushing, New York, on Sunday, June 2d, at four-thirty in the afternoon.

The exhibit will include three of the most important wampum belts of the Iroquois Indians, several outstanding manuscripts and relics of George Washington, including the first draft of his Farewell Address, a selection of the Arnold manuscripts found in the boots of Major Andre at the time of his capture, and the original manuscript of Lincoln's First Emancipation Proclamation.

The courtesy of a reply will be appreciated.

Very sincerely yours,

FRANK PIERREPONT GRAVES

To

The Honorable Herbert H. Lehman
Governor of the State of New York
Albany, New York
