MEMORANDUM

To: Governor Lehman

From: Luther Gulick

Growing out of the Atlantic City discussions, I have invited the head of the Soviet Delegation, Mr. Vasili Sergeev, Mr. Ilyuschenko and two others, to be selected by Mr. Sergeev, to have luncheon with Hugh Jackson, Eugene Staley and myself at 12:45 p.m. on Friday, December 17th, in a private room at the Hay Adams House. There is nothing special to discuss, although the Soviets may talk about their participation in the standing technical committees and other matters.

It would, of course, be very pleasant indeed to have you join us if you care to. We can easily add another place at the table if we know in time. If you think of anything which we might explore informally a word would be appreciated.
