Governor Lehman:

Major Lockhart called for Lord Halifax. Said Lord Halifax asked him to say that he is giving a small dinner on very short notice this evening for Colonel Llewelin, and he wondered if you weren't doing anything else and would like to attend. It is at eight-fifteen at the Embassy. He is terribly sorry the notice is so short - it is just an impromptu party.

GDS

Major Lockhart
British Embassy - Ext. 106