Mr. HUNT introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, to assure the equal application thereof to individuals of both sexes.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States:

"ARTICLE —

"SECTION 1. Whenever in this Constitution the term 'person, persons, people', or any personal pronoun is used the same shall be taken to include both sexes.

I
"Sec. 2. All Federal and State laws inconsistent herewith shall be deemed amended to conform hereto when this article shall take effect; and, the Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power, within their respective jurisdictions, to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."
