October 16th, 1938.

My dear Mrs. Lehman:

I hope that by this time you are reconciled to the Governor's renomination, particularly in view of the enthusiasm with which it has been received. I believe I understand your feeling in the matter and how anxious you were to have the Governor relieved from the arduous duties which the Governorship entails. I want you to know, however, that I recognize the sacrifice you and the Governor have made.

You have been not only generous but magnanimous about it all.

I feel the only consolation you will have is the knowledge that everyone appreciates what you and the Governor have given up and I know you will be comforted, at least in part, by the overwhelming endorsement which the Governor and his Administration will receive on Election Day.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely yours,
