A BILL

To provide a one-year period during which certain veterans may be granted National Service life insurance,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That notwithstanding the provisions of section 619 of the National Service Life Insurance Act of 1940, as amended, insurance may be granted under section 602 (c) (2) of the National Service Life Insurance Act of 1940, as amended, upon application made in writing within one year after date of this enactment, and subject to the limitations provided in such sections.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any time limitation for filing application for insurance contained in section 620 or section 621 of the National Service Life Insurance Act of 1940, as amended, any person heretofore eligible to apply for insurance under such sections shall, upon application made in writing within one year after the date of this enactment, be granted insurance thereunder, subject to the other limitations specified in such sections, except that where application for insurance under the provisions of section 621 of the Act is made more than one hundred and twenty days after separation from active service the applicant shall be required to submit evidence satisfactory to the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs of good health at the time of such application.