United States Senate
WASHINGTON, D.C.

November 27, 1944

Dear Governor Lehman:

It was very kind of you, indeed, Sir, to take your valuable time to send me a congratulatory message upon my reelection to the United States Senate. It was a heartening victory for the people with progressive principles of America. It was also a great victory for the President and his foreign policy.

My opponent represented the outmoded doctrine of isolationism, which was backed up to the limit by the reactionary Chicago Tribune. My majority of 214,000 votes in what is normally termed a Republican state is a decisive blow to the obstructionists and isolationists on the question of world peace.

With best wishes and kind personal regards, I am

Yours most sincerely,

Honorable Herbert H. Lehman
Washington, D.C.
