Dear Mr. Lehman,

It will be an honor to be your guest at the public dinner marking the fifty-third anniversary of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States, on February twenty-ninth at the Waldorf.

Believe me, most appreciatively and

Sincerely yours,

Henry Noble MacCracken