February 7, 1933

Dear Mr. Weizmann,

I have waited till now to send you a line of congratulations because I did not want a form letter from Jerusalem to be overwhelmed in the acclaims that came to you from the many thousands of your admirers and followers.

Great burdens and responsibilities have been laid upon you, and few men it must be some little help to know that the Community here are following your activities with profound good-

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]
wishes. Our days, fate, the leadership of honest, clear seeing, courageous men.

Kindly remember us to their behoof,
and with cordial regards, Love.

Sincerely,

Williams