Mrs. Lucie Mamelsdorf, nee Gutherz, 64 years of age, died at about eight p.m. on March 29, 1944 at the Orphelinat Rothschild, rue Lamblardie, Paris, 12eme, France. The cause of death was old age. The remains were cremated and the ashes deposited in Niche No. 5780 at the Columbarium of the Pere Lachaise Cemetery at Paris. When Mrs. Mamelsdorf was arrested on February 1, 1944 and sent to the Orphelinat Rothschild, her apartment was sealed by the German authorities. It is under the custody of the Enemy Property Department of the Militarbefehlshaber in Frankreich.

Mrs. Gustave Levy, sister of the deceased, resides at 15 bis boulevard Jules-Sandeau, Paris, and the address of the Mamelsdorf family is 17 rue des Perchamps, Paris.

The report of death, which was prepared by the Swiss Consul at Paris, is supported by an official death certificate issued April 17, 1944 by the Registrar of Vital Statistics, Paris.