Dear Mr. Justice:

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D.C.

Dear Governor Lehman:

It must cheer you that you have laid off your duties as chief executive of your state after a service courageous in integrity and industry for all the people whose public servant you have been.

And it is satisfying to discriminating observers of international problems that one of your friends and demonstrated administrative abilities is to handle the vast tasks of feeding helpless peoples.

With very good wishes,

Frank Murphy
