Retailers Honor Nelson

Donald M. Nelson, former WPB chairman and now President Roosevelt's personal representative, today held the gold medal of the National Retail Dry Goods Assn., citing him for distinguished service to the people and the government.

The award was made last night at a dinner at the Hotel Pennsylvania, by Benjamin H. Namm, head of the Namm Store, Brooklyn, and new president of the association. Messages of congratulation were read from President Roosevelt, War Mobilization Director Byrnes and Eric A. Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

In accepting the medal, Nelson said: "I accept the high tribute you have paid me, not for my work alone, but for the work of the millions of willing hands and minds who have made American war production the wonder of the world. I have absolute confidence that the merchants of America can be relied on to do whatever needs to be done to achieve total victory."
