Name of photographer unknown but picture taken about 75 years ago, probably by local photographer.

(3) Herbert H. Lehman and his brother Irving Lehman. Name of photographer unknown but the photograph was taken in Wurzburg, Germany, in 1864 when Herbert was six years old and brother Irving, eight. The reason for recalling the date was because Lehman's mother insisted on his wearing long hair and during her absence in Carlsbad Lehman's aunt (with whom he was living) had his curls cut. You may recall that mention is made of having the curls carefully wrapped up among his mother's possessions after her death.

(4) Picture of Herbert Lehman taken by Pach Brothers about 1899, the year of Lehman's graduation from Williams.

(5) This is a photograph of the Dramatic Club "Cap and Bells" at Williams College of which Herbert Lehman was a member. Taken in 1899 by local photographer in Williamstown, Mass.
