Herbert Lehman, as a public servant, is second to no American of his generation. His strength has been the strength of ten because his heart is pure. Allan Nevins' book is required reading for every American who may find his faith in democracy flagging. And for all others.