Governor Lands 160-Pound Tarpon

BOCA GRANDE, Fla., April 26 (AP)—Governor Lehman of New York, got his revenge today. Yesterday, his first day at this island fishing resort he hooked a tarpon estimated to weigh 55 pounds. Midway in the battle, a huge Hammerhead shark swallowed tarpon, hook, line and sinker, then snapped the line. Today Governor Lehman hooked and landed a 160-pound tarpon, the biggest caught in the Gulf of Mexico thus far in 1938 season. The fish was brought to gaff after a 30-minute battle. Mrs. Lehman landed a 60-pounder.
