After British troops leave on May 15, Arab forces are expected to try to isolate Jews living in Jerusalem (1), Galilee (2) and in settlements in Arab territory below Gaza (3). Jewish quarters say they already have cadres organized in the Negeb area (4) for mechanized and air forces. Supplies and reinforcements for the Jews are expected to come by sea; for the Arabs, from neighboring countries.