Dear Senator:

As you may know, this committee has just issued a 174-page committee print entitled:

CONGRESS AND THE MONOPOLY PROBLEM
FIFTY YEARS OF ANTITRUST DEVELOPMENT
1900-1950

A History of Congressional Action In
The Antitrust Field During
The Past Fifty Years

It is divided into the following parts:

Part 2: Jurisdiction to enforce antitrust laws.
Part 3: Statutory exemptions.
Part 4: Legislative proposals receiving action, 1900-1950.
Part 5: Recommendations of Small Business Committees, TNEC, etc.
Appendix 1: Texts of principal antitrust statutes.
Appendix 2: List of reports on antitrust legislation.

The number of copies of the committee print is limited, but, in view of Congressional interest, we are reserving one copy for each Member of Congress who may desire it.

If you desire a copy of this compilation, would you please advise the committee at your early convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Wright Patman
