Our American Government -- The Answers to 1,001 Questions on How It Works

By Congressman Wright Patman

Comments Received from Distinguished Citizens

Dwight D. Eisenhower - "The better our citizens understand the precepts, principles and functions of the Republic, the better they can fulfill their responsibilities and safeguard our priceless heritage of democracy. Your book will do much toward making such information readily available."

Harry S. Truman - "Every American can read this book with profit since it answers correctly so many questions which are not completely understood by so many good citizens."

Robert A. Taft - "It should be a very useful guide to those who want to know how our government works ... I congratulate you on producing a very helpful collection of information which is not found in any ordinary treatise."

Lyndon B. Johnson - "Your book 'Our American Government ...' fulfills a major need of over 160,000,000 Americans and millions of people throughout the world. In these crucial times when the democratic way of life is threatened and questioned as never before, it becomes doubly important for our citizens as well as those of other countries to understand the American heritage.

"This book will not only encourage Americans to take a more active interest in governmental affairs and politics, but it should be indispensable to our overseas information program as an effective weapon against totalitarianism."

Adm. Arthur W. Radford - "Your book provides an invaluable source of knowledge to anyone seeking to learn the principles and functions of 'Our American Government' whose strength and endurance is based on the intelligent understanding of its citizens."

James F. Byrnes - "OUR AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ... should be read by every American who wishes to know how his government functions. The questions are those which are asked most frequently as to the machinery of the government and the clear and concise answers are based upon the studies and experience of an efficient legislator."

Homer Ferguson - "I know of no book which throws more light on our government and how it works. It is indispensable to all Americans. Having read it an American will be much more familiar with his government and its problems."

W. Averell Harriman - "It should become a household bible about our government ... for both young and old."

Bernard M. Baruch - "I found it most interesting and instructive, and would not be without it."
Comments Received from Distinguished Citizens

Joseph W. Martin, Jr. - "... a remarkable collection of information on questions pertaining to government and its operations. It is the kind of book one can pick up at odd moments and open anywhere and find interesting material."

Sam Rayburn - "This is one of the most useful documents that has come to my attention in a long time. It will be of inestimable benefit to people in every walk of life in helping them know the greatness of our American government."

Adm. Lewis L. Strauss - "It is a most interesting and instructive work and a storehouse of vital information, presented in a manner for quick and easy reference ... a really remarkable and valuable book."

Eleanor Roosevelt - "I am delighted that such a book as OUR AMERICAN GOVERNMENT has been made available to the American people and I hope it will be widely read."

Gen. George C. Marshall - "... an excellent reference on governmental organization and procedure."

William F. Knowland - "Our American Government -- The Answers to 1001 Questions On How It Works" is filled with interesting facts that all of our citizens should want to know about the working processes of our government and functional politics. The book contains the type of information that can answer, to a large degree, the great yearning for knowledge of our American government on the part of the people all over the world, and thus it will play a vital role in counteracting the distortions and half truths turned out by Soviet propagandists."