AN ACT

To confer jurisdiction upon the industrial board of the state of New York to hear and determine the claim for compensation for permanent injury of Leo Daniel Casey as the result of an accident alleged to have been sustained by him while a member of the division of state police and engaged in the performance of his duty as such member, and to make an award therefor.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1. Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections eighteen and twenty-eight of the workmen's compensation law, jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the industrial board of the state of New York to hear and determine the claim for compensation for permanent injury of Leo Daniel Casey, as the result of an accident alleged to have been sustained by him on the twenty-sixth day of October, nineteen hundred and thirty, while a member of the division of state police and engaged in the performance of his duty as such member, and to make an award therefor.

Explanation—Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets [ ] is old law to be omitted.