

FRIENDS OF THE BURKE LIBRARY

What's in It for Me?

The Burke's Collections
and the Research Process

Tuesday, April 8, 2008

den / neben seyns selben
nif. grundlich ge

*Part I.
A Study of the Sources.
Chapter I
The New Testament*
The history of the deaconate begins with claim for itself a permanent place in the stable foundation. The name and the her records of the apostolic church. The oldest deacon of either sex is the New Testam
There are many references in the New S ministry of the apostles and their helpers, to try of Bishops, presbyters or deacons. An man deacon was, therefore, not to be a

Friends of the Columbia Libraries

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
LIBRARIES

The Friends of the Burke Library cordially invite you to:

What's in It for Me?

Burke's Collections and the Research Process

Tuesday, April 8, 2008

Social Hall
Union Theological Seminary
304I Broadway at 121st Street
New York City

Ree DeDonato
Acting Director, Burke Library at Union Theological Seminary

Andrew Delbanco
Julian Clarence Levi Professor in the Humanities, Columbia University

Michelle Nickens
M.Div. Candidate, Union Theological Seminary

Ruth Tonkiss Cameron
Archivist, Burke Library at Union Theological Seminary

Reception at 6:00 p.m.; lecture at 6:30 p.m.

Please respond to cul-events@columbia.edu or visit www.alumni.libraries.columbia.edu.