Biography

Gale Yee was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, April 9, 1949. She attended the Academy of Our Lady (Catholic) high school graduating in 1967. She received a BA in 1971 from Loyola University of Chicago, a Jesuit college, and continued at that University receiving her MA in 1974. Yee studied for the PhD in Theology at the University of St. Michael's College, Toronto, and received her degree in 1985 after completing her dissertation, Composition and Tradition in the Book of Hosea. While at St Michael's she was instructor for the Introduction to Old Testament course.

Gale Yee taught at the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, MN, where she was Director of Women's Studies from 1984 until 1998. Starting in 1998 she has taught at Episcopal Divinity School (EDS) in Cambridge, Massachusetts and is the EDS Director of Studies in Feminist Liberation Theologies there. During the academic year 2002-2003 she was Visiting Scholar at Chung Chi College at the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Gale Yee specializes in Hebrew Bible, biblical methodologies and approaches, cultural criticism of the bible, feminist interpretation of the Hebrew Bible, and Women's Studies.

Her writings include:

Composition and tradition in the book of Hosea: a redaction- critical investigation.

Dissertation series (Society of Biblical Literature), no. 102, Scholars Press, 1987.

Jewish Feasts and the Gospel of John, Michael Glazier, 1989

Judges and method: new approaches in biblical studies, ed. G. A. Yee, Fortress Press, 1995

Daniel and the minor prophets, Abingdon, 1996

Commentary on the Book of Hosea in The New Interpreter's Bible, Abingdon, 1996

Poor Banished Children of Eve: Woman as Evil in the Hebrew Bible, Fortress Press, 2003

African Americans and the Bible: Sacred Texts and Social Textures, in The Catholic Biblical Quarterly, Digital - October 31, 2003

Marginalization: Hidden Transcripts in Ancient Israel for the Library of Ancient Israel Series [in preparation]

"Yin/Yang Is Not Me: Exploration into an Asian American Biblical Hermeneutics," pp.152-63 in Ways of Being, Ways of Reading: Asian-American Biblical Interpretation, eds Mary F. Foskett, and Jeffrey K. Kuan. St. Louis: Chalice, 2006

Collection Scope and Content Note

The Gale Yee Papers contain draft manuscripts of her book "Poor Banished Children of Eve: Women as Evil in the Hebrew Bible" and comments from readers, drafts of other professional writings (published and unpublished), her lecture notes for Old Testament classes, her student papers and exams from University of Loyola and St. Michael's College (Toronto) and drafts of her doctoral thesis. The bulk of the material in this collection spans her university education in the early 1970s and her writings in the 1980s-1990s.

The collection is divided into five series:

- Series 1: Education, [1966?] -1985 (4 boxes, 2 linear ft.)
This series consists of essays, exams, and lecture notes from Yee's education (B.A. and M.A.) at Loyola College, papers and drafts of her dissertation for the PhD at St. Michael's College, and her academic record from Loyola.
- Series 2: Teaching and Lecture Notes, 1980 -1989 (1 box, 0.5 linear ft.)
Series 2 contains Yee's teaching and lecture notes on the Old Testament while she was a Ph.D. student and instructor at St. Michael's College. Two folders relating to Yee's first faculty position in the College of St Thomas complete the series, which is otherwise arranged according to the order of the lectures.
- Series 3: Writings, 1978 – 2006 (5 boxes, 2.5 linear ft.)
This series contains Yee's published and unpublished writings including various undated drafts of her book, Poor Banished Children of Eve: Women as Evil in the Hebrew Bible, and correspondence with colleagues, editors and advisors relating to the texts. The initial part of the series is arranged by title, followed by the files of correspondence relating to articles, arranged in Yee's numbered file order. Some correspondence files contain drafts and page proofs of articles.
- Series 4: Correspondence, 1971 - 1985 (1 box, 0.5 linear ft.)
This series contains personal correspondence to Yee from friends, most of whom were involved in religious work. The folders include invitations to ordinations, birthday and Christmas cards, and unmarked and unsigned postcards (mostly of Christian icons). The series is arranged chronologically.
- Series 5: Miscellaneous material, 1975-1997 (2 boxes, 2.0 linear ft.)
Series 5 is a collection of varied items which include Yee's weekly appointment books, 1983-1997, travel documents and mementos from trips to Rome in 1975 and Jerusalem in 1986, hymn lyrics, Living with Christ liturgy magazine series, 1982-1984, and a photograph of Gale Yee with friends [mid 1970s?]. The series is arranged in the order Yee filed them while they were in her possession.

Processing

When the Burke Library acquired Yee's papers, the order imposed by Gale Yee during her production and use of these papers was retained as far as possible.

Folded materials were flattened. Newspaper clippings were photocopied on acid free paper. Staples, rubber bands, and metal clips were removed and replaced with plastic clips. All materials were placed in acid-free folders and boxes.
