Executive Information
Provenance: The current papers were discovered among late additions to the John Coleman Bennett Papers in both presidential files and in donations from John C. Bennett after his retirement from UTS. They were separated from that collection in 2008. A pre-existing small collection of Anne McGrew Bennett papers has so far remained untraceable since a major water incursion into the archives storage area in 2003.
Access: Archival papers are available to registered readers for consultation by appointment only. Please contact archives staff by phone, fax or email, archives@uts.columbia.edu, as far in advance as possible.
Access Restrictions: The collection is unrestricted to readers.
Preferred Citation: Item description, UTS1: Anne McGrew Bennett Papers, 1969-1989, box #, and folder #, The Burke Library Archives at Union Theological Seminary in the City of New York.

Biography
Anne McGrew Bennett was born in Lincoln County, NE on November 24, 1903 and died in Claremont, CA, on October 19, 1986.

Anne was born and raised in Nebraska, the child of homesteaders. She taught school, having received undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Nebraska. Enrolled at Auburn Theological Seminary, in Auburn NY, she met and married John Coleman Bennett, who was later to become President of Union Theological Seminary. She graduated from Auburn in 1931. Later she was a lay church worker and became active in the movement to end the Vietnam War, traveling to both North and South Vietnam and testifying before congress.

Despite labeling herself ‘a homemaker, not a specialist,’ she was a pioneer in feminist theology, authoring over 60 articles. Her writings and speeches reflected her interest in the peace movement and feminist theology. In 1972, she was the first woman to give the commencement address at Union Theological Seminary. She was a founder of the Center for Women and Religion at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, CA. She also served as a board member of the Council for Christian Social Action of the United Church of Christ and the National Council of Churches. Anne received an honorary Doctorate in 1983 from Starr King School for the Ministry and both she and her husband were awarded the Union Medal in 1986.

Her published works include:
‘Beyond Barriers: A Presentation.’ United Presbyterian Church in the USA Standing Committee on Women, 1972.
From Woman-Pain to Woman-Vision: Writings in Feminist Theology, Minneapolis: Fortress Press, 1989

Collection Scope and Content Note
This is a small collection of materials that have been separated from the formerly unprocessed additional papers of John Coleman Bennett, Anne McGrew Bennett’s husband. They reflect her activism against the Vietnam War and her feminist theology, as well as her involvement in the life of Union Theological Seminary. The previous collection of Anne McGrew Bennett papers has been untraced since early 2003.

Note: Further Anne McGrew Bennett Papers can be found at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California, donated by John C. Bennett in 1989. The finding aid for the GTU collection can be accessed at http://content.cdlib.org/view?docId=tf0q2n97f1&doc.view=entire_text&brand=oac

This single series includes items related to Bennett’s congressional testimony on the War in Vietnam, the 1970 Faculty Wives’ party held in her honor, the text of her 1972 Commencement Address, photographs, a book written and owned by her, and press clippings on the subject of her activism against the Vietnam War.

Processing
Metal clips and staples were removed from materials and folded items were flattened. Materials were placed in new acid-free folders and boxes. Acidic items were separated from one another by interleaving and clippings were copied to acid free paper.
