Biography

John Goodman Hall was born in Brooklyn, NY in 1816 and graduated from New York City University in 1836. He entered into the first class of students at the newly founded New York Theological Seminary which was renamed Union Theological Seminary on incorporation. Hall graduated from UTS in 1839 and was ordained by the Congregational Berkshire Association on October 29, 1839. His career followed the traditional path of that period: as Stated supply (Acting Pastor) in New-Lebanon, NY, 1839 – 42; Pastor in South Egremont, Mass, 1842 – 50; Pastor in Cherry Valley, NY, 1850 – 57 and Pastor (Reformed Church in America )in Fort Plain, NY 1857 – 63. While pastor in Cherry Valley he undertook a journey to England and France from April to August 1853. In 1864 he moved to Ohio, but does not appear to have obtained a full church position there. Hall was Stated supply in the Congregational church in Ravenna, Ohio, 1864 – 73, but was without charge in Cleveland, Ohio from 1873 – 1900. He was honored with a D.D. from New York University in 1879 and died in Cleveland, Ohio on January 30, 1900

Collection Scope and Content Note

This small collection consists of two manuscript notebooks, which are 'private journals' containing Hall's diary of handwritten notes on the thoughts, activities and events of his life during the years 1845 – 1863 as a New York pastor. The first notebook includes details of his European visit and has some fragile pressed flowers. A third small volume contains clippings mainly of J. G. Hall's own printed letters and sermons.

Processing

Metal clips and staples were removed from materials and folded items were flattened. Materials were placed in new acid-free folders and boxes. Acidic items were separated from one another by interleaving with acid-free paper as needed.
