Biography

Morton Fitch Trippe was born in Bridgewater, NY on September 15, 1847 and joined the 9th NY Artillery in 1864. Following the Civil War he graduated from Hamilton College, 1872, and from Auburn in the class of 1875.

He married Sarah Louise Holmes of Bloomsburgh, PA on May 18, 1875 and was ordained in Augusta, NY, Utica presbytery, on June 15, 1875. He held pastorates in Augusta, NY, 1875 – 9, with Vernon Centre, 1878-9 and Sodus, 1879 – 1881. He was missionary to the Indians on Cattaraugus Reservation, from 1881 to 1893, firstly under the Foreign Board 1893 – 1916, then under the Home Board, with its headquarters in Salamanca, NY, for part of 1916.

A. W. Ferrin, the U. S. agent for the New York Indians, published Facts concerning New York Indians, a summary of his annual report in the Democrat & Chronicle, Rochester, Monroe, NY, June 3, 1900,.

“The Presbyterians have two churches on the Allegany reservation, one at Jimersontown, the other at Old Town, with a membership of 125 and fifty-two respectively. There is also a church on the Cornplanter reservation just over the line in Pennsylvania, with a membership of sixty-one. There are Sunday-schools connected with these churches. Rev. M. F. Trippe, of Salamanca, has charge of these churches, and also of the Presbyterian mission work on the Tonawanda and Tuscarora reservations. He spends one Sunday each month with each reservation, and the work is carried on by native helpers during the interim.”

Trippe received the honorary degree of D.D. from Hamilton College, 1907 and died, in Salamanca, NY on May 7, 1916

Sarah Louise Trippe was born on July 18, 1850, in Davenport, NY., the daughter of Rev and Mrs William Holmes. She was a graduate of Bloomsburg Normal at Bloomsburg, Pa. and taught in schools in that area. Late in life [1929/1930?] she published a book, Early times among the Iroquois, 1535-1790. She died on the Tuesday before April 10, 1931 in Salamanca, NY.

Both of the Trippes were well known for their missionary work on the Allegany, Cattaraugus, Tonawanda and Tuscorora Indian reservations.

At her death in 1931, Mrs Trippe was survived by three daughters: Mrs Caroline T Hawkey (with whom Mrs. Trippe lived in Salamanca), Mrs (Myra) W M Kelsey (of Palmerton, Pa.), and Mrs (Mary) S S Board (of Hempstead, L. I.) and by one son Dr Clarence Trippe (of Asbury Park, N J.), one sister Mrs A D Dorsheimer and 12 grandchildren as well as nieces and nephews.

Scope and collection description

Series 1: Sermons, 1871 – 1881, 3 boxes, 1.5 linear ft.

These sermons are arranged by Trippe's' number order or, if no number was assigned in chronological order of the date on which the sermons were first delivered.

It is clear from their content that written sermons date to the earlier period and more of the sermon plans and minimal notes are marked Res [Reservation]. It is possible that the minimal paper notes assisted in maintaining the oral traditions in which Trippe would have found himself working.

Series 2: Plans for Sermons, 1877 – 1915, bulk dates 1902-1914, 1 box, 0.5linear ft.

"Much used" notes for sermons, annotated with the places and dates that the sermons were given, including some markings of 'Res' [Reservation].

Occasionally notes are written on the reverse of receipts, previous correspondence, or notices. All had previously been kept tightly folded into 2 1/2" strips and in large bundles in envelopes, tied with string. There is no clear subject, bible citation, date or other order and the plans have been kept as far as possible in the order in which they originally came to the library.

NOTE: Series 3 – 5 are located in 1 box. 0.5 linear ft.

Series 3: Talks & Addresses

This series includes addresses on temperance or religious themes.

Series 4: Miscellaneous

This series contains documents of interest on matters concerning the Reservation and the land disputes of the 1880s – 1890s, as well as miscellanea such as portrait photographs and financial notebooks, quarterly reports to the Board of Home Missions and correspondence.

Series 5: Historical notes and writings by Mrs M F Trippe, 1916 - 1947

Various documents on the history of the reservations and Native American conditions are to be found collected by Mrs Trippe along with newspaper articles and other later documents including a Daughters of the American Revolution Certificate for Trippes' daughter, Myra.
