

Do their small hands really make it practical for them to crawl around in Coal Mines?

I don't know.

But you might. Come to the Philolexian Society's weekly debate and tell us!

Resolved: 19th-Century child labor made the world
what it is today.

Thursday January 28th at 8:30
Hamilton Hall (6th floor, room TBD)

Bring you own child laborer—we don't provide them.
