Procedures for Bidding and Redeeming

SILENT AUCTION
Opens at 7:00 pm & Closes at 9:45 pm

When bidding on an item, please write your name, e-mail address, and the amount of your bid in the appropriate increment on the bid sheet in front of the item. Make sure that the PILF volunteer standing behind the table acknowledges your bid by initialing next to your entry. Bidding in the Silent Auction will close in sections beginning at 9:45 pm. The highest bid at the close of the Silent Auction is the winning bid. The PILF volunteer standing behind the Silent Auction tables will remove the Silent Auction Bid Forms and write the name of the winning bidder on the bidding form. At the conclusion of the Silent Auction, bidders should check the auction item tables to determine if they have won. If you would like to depart early, you may leave your contact and payment information with the check-out staff stationed to the left of the stage. You may pay for Silent Auction items by cash, credit card, or check. Should the highest bidder be unable to pay, the next highest bidder will be deemed the winner. Payment is due at the time the Silent Auction concludes.

LIVE AUCTION
Opens at 8:00 pm & Closes at 10 pm (approx.)

If you wish to place a bid, please raise your paddle. Keep your paddle up until the auctioneer recognizes you. If you are the highest bidder for an item, an auction representative will approach you and provide you with directions for payment and receipt of your winning item. You may pay for Live Auction items by cash, credit card, or check. Payment is due at the time the Live Auction concludes.

REDEEMING ITEMS WON AT THE AUCTION

You may pay for auction items by cash, credit card, or check. If you have any questions, please contact Brittany Dillman at brittany.dillman@law.columbia.edu.
Live Auction Items

L1  Can you take the heat?: Dinner for 5 at Manhattan’s best Sichuan restaurant with Professor Ben Liebman. For spicy food lovers!

L2  Shaken or stirred?: A Martini making lesson for 6 with Professor Philip Bobbit. (To be held along with winning group from item L21.)

L3  The Dean’s treat: Enjoy a Friday lunch for 4 students with Dean David Schizer.

L4  Springtime feast: Dinner for 6 students with hosts Professor Jane Spinak and Warren Scharf. Celebrate Spring over drinks and a leisurely meal. There is a $200 reserve for this item. Dinner can include 8 guests if high bidder donates an additional $50 to PILF.

L5  A long weekend in Nantucket: Spend a long weekend (3 nights) in Professors Robert & Elizabeth Scott’s Nantucket summer home in May for up to 6 people. The house has panoramic ocean views. It is well equipped and beautifully decorated and landscaped. It is two miles outside of Nantucket town and a 5-minute walk to Nobadeer beach. Memorial day weekend included.

L6  Haute cuisine: Dinner for 4 students with Professor and Mrs. Goldschmid at Ouest at a mutually convenient time. Ouest, located between 83rd and 84th Street on Broadway, is generally considered one of New York’s strongest restaurants.

L7  Home-cooked food and company: Professor Jack Greenberg will host a multi-course dinner for 4 at his home.

L8  Mets tix: 2 tickets and a parking pass to see the NY Mets vs. the San Francisco Giants on May 4, 2011 at 7:10 pm. The incredible seats are located on the field level, behind the diamond, in Section 12, Row 18. Courtesy of 3L and PILF Board Member Rena Stern and Robert Bressman of Wilkie Farr & Gallagher LLP.

L9  Get your cameras ready!: Dine at local celebrity-sighting hot spot Locanda Verde. Professor Katherine Franke will take 3 students to sample the delicacies and watch the crowd at this trendy Tribeca restaurant.

L10 Enjoy a weekend retreat in the Hudson Valley Woods: Deer, geese, and the occasional bear footprint included! Spend the weekend in the 3-bedroom country home of Professor Carol Sanger, nestled in a wooded setting in the Catskills, two miles from the interesting Hudson Valley town of Saugerties, NY. Large deck, fireplace with plenty of wood and books. Saugerties has some nice restaurants, a good used bookstore, an old-fashioned movie theater, and a historic lighthouse. Maximum 6 persons: one king bed, one double, one single and a fold-out queen couch. Dates of two-night stay (anytime after July 2011) to be mutually agreed upon anytime.

L11  For the carnivores: Professor Jane Ginsburg will prepare a home-cooked dinner for 4 wine-drinking carnivores at her home. No picky eaters please!

L12  Private performance of Concert of Nations: The talented musical trio Claremont Baroque will give a private performance of the music of 17th century Europe to a group of 30 lucky students - the date to be mutually agreed upon. Performers include Professor Katharina Pistor (harpsichord), Christopher Minarich (violin) and Carsten Bonnemann (viola da gamba). A wine and cheese reception will follow the concert!

L13  For the oenophiles: Evening of wining and dining, with the emphasis on wining, with Professor Genty for a bidding group of 6 students.

L14  Wicked Tickets: 2 house seats to Tony-Award Winning Musical “Wicked” in NYC! Winner must email donor six weeks in advance with three choices of performances. Courtesy of Rena Stern and Julie and Marc Platt.

L15  VIP Tour of the New York Stock Exchange: Watch the Opening Bell start the trading day. Get a close up view of NYSE's world famous trading floor and see the center of global capital markets in action. Enjoy a private VIP tour for 10 students of the NYSE (closed to the public since 2001). Courtesy of Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP.

L16  Some like it hoppy: Still searching for a good French farmhouse ale -- on tap? You're in luck. Professors Olati Johnson and Bert Huang will take 6 students for a beer tasting at the new Harlem beer garden, Bier International – date to be mutually agreed upon.

L17  No Red Sox fans allowed!: 3 students can join Professor Raskolnikov for a trip to the shrine of baseball greatness (aka The New Yankee Stadium) to watch the best team in baseball, the New York Yankees take on whoever it happens to be. Game to take place during the summer (or in April/May if preferred).

L18  Spend the weekend lakeside in the Berkshires: Spend the weekend at Professor Strauss’s 4-bedroom, lakefront vacation home on Stockbridge Bowl in the Berkshires. Private beach, all conveniences. How better to recover from exams with your friends, celebrate graduation, or simply enjoy a tranquil and private spot as a group? Weekend to be agreed upon; July, August and Labor Day weekends not included.

L19  Home-cooked food and company: Dinner for up to 5 guests with Professors Elizabeth Emens, Scott Hemphill, and Olati Johnson. Enjoy a delicious home-cooked 5-course meal! We don't promise perfection—cooking’s not our day job—but we do promise both food and wine aplenty. Dinner will be served on Thursday, April 21 (with an alternate date of Wednesday, April 13).

L20  Cocktail party overlooking Central Park: Cocktail party for 25 on a spring or summer evening of your choice, on a beautiful terrace overlooking Central Park. All drinks and food items will be provided. Hosted and catered by 2L and PILF Board Member (and trained chef) Chris Lacovara.

L21  Straight up or on the rocks?: A Martini making lesson for 6 students with Professor Philip Bobbit. (To be held along with winning group from item L2.)

L22  Pass the salt and lime!: Dinner for 4 students. Enjoy an evening out with Professors Jamal Greene and Bert Huang, in search of the best guacamole and margaritas along the 1 line. (Or at least the best guacamole and margaritas at Mama Mexico.)

L23  Beginner’s poker lesson: The winning bidder and 9 friends (group of 10) will join adjunct professor and alumnus Jeremy Feinberg for a lesson about the basics of poker: rules, etiquette, strategy, betting, bluffing, and tournament play. He will also share his experiences playing in the World Series of Poker over the past few years. Although no actual gambling will take place in the lesson, you will leave with enough knowledge and experience to hold your own in a Texas Hold 'em table in a casino or at a friend’s home.

L24  Escape from the city for a day: A day of sunning, hiking, swimming and munching at Professor Barbara Schatz’s country home in Bedford, NY for up to 8 students. Bedford is 1 hour from the city by car or train. Food will be provided.

L25  Music & merriment: An evening of music and merriment with Professor Susan Sturm. This evening of entertainment will include solo and four-hands piano music performed by Professor Sturm. Dinner will be included. The event will take place at Professor Sturm's home in Lionsgate and will accommodate 25 people.

L26 See Wagner’s Ring Operas at the Met: 1 ticket to see 4 performances of Wagner’s famous Ring cycle in April 2012 with Professor Strauss from the front row of the exclusive dress circle boxes. See the Met’s first production of this legendary series of 4 operas in over 20 years! The tickets can be bid on by one student or by a group of students. One ticket per performance (4 tickets total).

L27 The iPad: A brand new 16G iPad. Courtesy of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP.

L28 Week at the beach in Topsail Island, NC: Spend 7 days at Rod & Laura Dillman’s oceanfront home in Topsail Beach, NC. The house has 4 bedrooms, 3.5 bathrooms, 2 living rooms with entertainment systems, kitchen, dining room, laundry, upper and lower decks (with stair access directly to the beach), outdoor grill, and more! Topsail Beach is approx. 50 minutes from the Wilmington, NC airport. This house rents at a market rate of $3895 per week during the summer. Max. 8 people. To be redeemed in 2011; date to be mutually agreed upon. There is a reserve of $1500 on this item.

L29 Trader Joe’s Dinner Party: Enjoy a home-made dinner party for 6 to 8 students at 2L and Student Senate V.P. Nona Farahnik’s apartment featuring a selection of items from the 72nd St. Trader Joe’s (which she lives above) and plenty of wine!

L30 Morningside Heights brunch & tour: Walking tour of Morningside Heights and brunch at Prof. Richard Briffault’s home for 6 to 8 students.

L31 “Legends seats” at the new Yankee stadium: Two tickets to see the NY Yankees play the Minnesota Twins on April 5, 2011 from some of the best seats in the stadium. These 2 “Legends seats” are located in Section 14B, Row 8 directly adjacent to the Yankees dugout and only 8 rows from the field! The Legends seats come with free food, drinks and parking. Courtesy of CLS alumnus Anthony Yoseloff.

L32 The Jersey Shore house: No, not THAT Jersey Shore house! Enjoy a leisurely (or not) long weekend (3-4 nights) at Professor Ed Lloyd’s Shore house in Manasquan, NJ. The house has 3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, two pull-out sofas and sleeps up to 10 guests. It is located in the second row of houses from the beach -- literally mere steps from the sand and sea. Weekend to be determined by mutual agreement. Definitely available before Memorial Day and after Labor Day. Potentially available over the summer as well.
