

Senior Clinical Research Assistant - Alcohol and Drug Abuse Treatment Program at McLean Hospital, a non-profit psychiatric hospital located right outside of Boston, MA – Seeking a highly motivated college graduate to work on clinical research projects on gender and substance abuse. Responsibilities include organizing and analyzing data; coding group therapy session tapes; literature searches; IRB applications and renewals; manuscript and grant preparation; and performing administrative tasks. This position offers an excellent opportunity to work in a research intensive setting on manuscripts and poster presentations especially for recent undergraduates considering graduate study in psychology, medicine or related fields. Tentative start date: May/June 2007.

Additional Qualifications – College degree – Research experience - Detail oriented – Familiarity with data analysis and SPSS – Excellent written and verbal communication skills – Proficient in Word, Excel, and PowerPoint –Two-year commitment

Required When Applying – Resume and at least 3 references

Please send resume and cover letter to Melissa Lincoln at milcoln@mclean.harvard.edu