

SECURITY ALERT

On September 7, 2009, at about 1:30 a.m., a Columbia University affiliate reported that the male shown below, followed her into a building on West 115th Street between Broadway and Riverside Drive. Once inside, he began trying to open doors in the building. CCTV review shows the male following the affiliate to the aforementioned building. A short time later, he again follows two other affiliates near Woodbridge Hall on Riverside Drive. If you believe you saw this male, contact the undersigned. If you believe you are being followed, contact 911 immediately. Please remember to have your keys ready as you approach your front door, and to make sure the door closes after you enter your building and apartment.

Described by witness: Male Hispanic, 20 to 25 years of age and slim build.
