

SECURITY ALERT - FORCIBLE TOUCHING

On October 13, 2010 at about 3:10 a.m., a student was accosted and grabbed as she was walking on Broadway. The suspect shown in the photos, attempted to engage the victim in conversation at W.115 St. and Broadway. He followed her as she walked home and then grabbed her near W. 111 St. He turned around and walked north and remained in the area for several minutes. If you have any information about this incident or the suspect, contact the undersigned immediately. If you see this suspect, call the police immediately at 911.

The victim provided the following description: Hispanic/5'3"-5'4"/ 20's/see photo for additional information.

Please remember to use the Columbia University Public Safety escort and shuttle service. The telephone number is 212-854-SAFE (7233).