

Burglary Alert

On August 8, 2008, a Columbia University affiliate reported that someone entered his first floor apartment on 111th Street, and removed his bicycle. CCTV reviewed by the Investigations Unit shows the male shown below, in the area between 2:30 am and 4:30 am. The suspect is believed to have gained access via an open window.

Description based on CCTV review: male black / medium to dark complexion / thin to medium build / short hair / last seen wearing a dark colored shirt / blue jeans / white sneakers.

Anyone who observes this individual on Columbia University property is urged to call the Public Safety Desk at 212-854-5555 or 4-5555 from any Rolm phone. If anyone has additional information on this individual or observed him in the area during the day of incident, please contact the undersigned.

Ken Finnegan, Director of Investigations & Technology
Department of Public Safety
212-854-4790
August 13, 2008