

Burglary / Sexual Abuse Alert Off Campus – 172nd Street

On July 19, 2007, A Columbia University Student reported that at approximately 5:00 a.m., while sleeping in her apartment on the 5th floor on 172nd Street in a non Columbia University owned building, a male entered her open window through a fire escape, climbed into her bed, touching her inappropriately. When the victim woke up and screamed, the suspect fled back out the window. The victim contacted 911, upon N.Y.P.D. responding, the suspect had already fled the area.

Victim described suspect as: Dark skin male Hispanic, medium build, between 25 to 35 years of age, medium length hair – short on the sides and back, last seen wearing a white T-Shirt and dark jeans. No further information at this time.

Please remember to secure your windows by fire escapes and report any suspicious persons on fire escapes by calling 911 immediately.