

SECURITY ALERT - PUSH-IN ROBBERY

On Saturday, January 17, 2009, at about 3 p.m., a graduate student reported that he was the victim of a robbery, in his apartment house on W. 122 St. between Broadway and Amsterdam Ave. The student was in his elevator when the suspects entered, displayed a silver handgun, and forced their way into his apartment. Once inside, they stole property from the victim and his wife.

The Description based on victim and CCTV review:

Suspect #1 m/b/early-mid 20's/5'10"-6'/ large build, wearing a ¾ length olive green coat with red hooded liner and a knit hat, partially covering his face, light jeans and sneakers.

Suspect #2 m/b/20's/5'8"-5'10"/med. build, wearing dark clothing and a knit cap covering most of his face, dark blue jeans w/ light colored rear pockets and brown boots.

It is believed the suspects may have gained entry to the apartment house by ringing doorbells in the lobby, until someone buzzed them in. Please remember not to grant access to people who ring your doorbell unless you have properly identified them.
