

SECURITY ALERT

LARCENY

The New York City Police Department has notified us that over the last several days, four larcenies have been reported in the area, which are very similar in nature.

Four women have had their cell phones stolen as they walked on the street, talking on the phone. In each case, the victims have provided the same description of the perpetrator. The suspect rides by the victim on his bicycle and steals the phone.

The description provided by the victims is:

Male/ black/dark complexion/ 18-22 years, last seen wearing a tee shirt with wide stripes.

If you have any information about these crimes, call Detective Lugo at the 26 Pct. Detective Squad, 212-678-1351.

If you see a male fitting the description, and acting suspiciously, dial 911 immediately.
