

Columbia University
Department of Public Safety

SECURITY ALERT

ROBBERY

On October 31, 2009, at about 9:30 p.m. a student was robbed as he walked on Morningside Ave. near W. 114 St. The victim was approached from behind by two males who knocked him to the ground and removed his wallet and I-Phone. The pair fled on foot, before the victim could get a good description of the suspects.

When traveling through the neighborhood, remember to stay aware of your surroundings, limit your use of cell phones while walking, and keep your electronic devices concealed, when possible.

Please remember to utilize the Columbia University Shuttle Service. Information about this service, and others offered by Columbia University Public Safety can be found on our website: www.columbia.edu/cu/publicsafety/

If you have any information about this crime, please contact the undersigned.

Ken Finnegan
Director, Investigations and Technology Projects
November 2, 2009
212-854-4790