Northeast Biomaterials Day

Columbia University

March 27, 2010

Held in conjunction with the Northeast Bioengineering Conference (NEBEC)

Society For Biomaterials

Meeting Objectives

- * Highlight state-of-the-art biomaterials research in the Northeast region
- * Promote interactions between scientists, engineers, clinicians and entrepreneurs from academia and industry

Scientific Sessions

- I. Cell-Material Interactions
- II. Smart Biomaterials
- III. Nanomaterials
- IV. Tissue Engineering
- V. Imaging Biomaterials

Workshops

Technology Translation

- Designed to inform and educate attendees of the process and challenges of translating technology from bench-to-beside

Surgical Implementation of Biomaterials

- Expert panelists to present case studies and lead discussions focused on the clinical considerations in utilizing biomaterials
