

The Harriman Review

Published by the Harriman Institute, Columbia University, the foremost academic center in the United States devoted to the interdisciplinary study of the Russian Empire, the Soviet Union, and the post-Communist states, The Harriman Review boasts an international roster of scholars on topics ranging from an analysis of Ukrainian national security to the current sociopolitical situation of the Crimean Tatars, an in-depth analysis of Bosnian politics after Dayton and a review essay devoted to new books on the collapse of the Soviet empire and the legacy of the Soviet past.

Current and past issues of The Harriman Review include the following:

- ROMAN SZPORLUK (Harvard University), "Reflections on Ukraine After 1994: The Dilemma of Nationhood."
- BARBARA HELDT (University of British Columbia), "Feminism and the Slavic Field."
- RAJAN MENON (Lehigh University), "Post-Mortem: The Causes and Consequences of the Soviet Collapse."
- PADMA DESAI (Harriman Institute), "Russian Privatization: A Comparative Perspective."
- "UKRAINIAN NATIONAL SECURITY," Selected papers and proceedings from the conference held at the Kennan Institute on May 8-9, 1997.
- FRANK SYSYN (University of Alberta), "Ukrainian 'Nationalism': A Minority Faith?"
- GORDON N. BARDOS (Harriman Institute), "The Bosnian Cold War: Politics, Society and International Engagement after Dayton."
- "PEOPLES, NATIONS, IDENTITIES: The Russian-Ukrainian Encounter." Special double issue (24 contributors, 159 pages).
- WILLIAM CRAFT BRUMFIELD (Tulane University), "The French Connection: The Medieval Revival in Russian Architecture."
- VELJKO VUJACIC (Oberlin College), "Serbian Nationalism, Slobodan Milosevic and the Origins of the Yugoslav War."
- RICHARD FOLTZ (Harriman Institute), "Islam and Identity in Post-Soviet Central Asia."
- MARK S. JOHNSON (Colorado College), "Russian Education Reform in the 1990s."

The Harriman Review

THE HARRIMAN REVIEW,

successor to The Harriman Institute Forum,
is published quarterly by the Harriman Institute,
Columbia University.

ISSN NUMBER 0896-114X. 1999: Volume 12, numbers 1-4.

ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

U.S. & Canada: $35.00 (1 year); $60.00 (2 years)

Elsewhere: $45.00 (1 year); $85.00 (2 years)

Back issues: $10.00 per issue

All orders must be prepaid. Orders may be sent through a subscription agency
(e.g., Faxon, Readmore, Ebsco, etc.)

Check or money order made payable to Columbia University.

U.S. funds only.

Send all orders, changes of address, and subscription inquiries to:

The Harriman Review
1218 International Affairs Building
Columbia University
420 West 118 Street
New York, NY 10027

TELEPHONE: (212) 854-6218; FAX: (212) 666-3481

Please enter my subscription to THE HARRIMAN REVIEW.
I enclose my check made to the order of Columbia University.

- $35.00 (1 year U.S. & Canada)
- $60.00 (2 years U.S. & Canada)
- $45.00 (1 year, outside U.S. & Canada)
- $85.00 (2 years, outside U.S. & Canada)

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____
