Information Sheet for the 2010-2011 Fellowship Competition

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

The Application consists of the following:

1. Online Application Form. Complete and submit the Online Application Form online. Please note that the Online Application form must be submitted online in order for the paper application to receive consideration. Please include five copies of the printed Online Application Form, collated along with the rest of your application materials. This form will serve as the cover page to each set of your application materials.
2. FIVE complete, collated sets of application materials. These include: a copy of the online application form, your curriculum vitae, a project description (no more than 1,500 words), a writing sample (no more than 3,500 words), and one two-page course syllabus of your own design.
3. TWO letters of recommendation. Recommendations are to be submitted online by recommenders. Recommenders will receive automated notification of your request and instructions for submitting their recommendations upon online submission of your Online Application Form. Please be sure to follow up with your recommenders, as spam filters often stop automated emails from reaching inboxes.
4. ONE $30.00 application processing fee. This fee may be paid by check or Visa or MasterCard. All checks must include a routing number, must be made payable in US$ to Columbia University, and must be drawn on a U.S. bank. Foreign checks will not be accepted.
5. ONE stamped, self-addressed postcard, if you wish us to acknowledge receipt of your application materials. On the postcard, please include the message: "Application to Columbia University Society of Fellows received."

Applications must be postmarked by Monday, 5 October 2009. There are no exceptions or extensions to this deadline.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

1. Curriculum Vitae. Please include the following information: name and location of colleges, graduate and professional schools attended, as well as dates of attendance and degrees earned; relevant professional experience; academic honors; publications; papers presented; and languages read, spoken, and written.

2. Project Description. Describe the research project you will undertake as a Fellow, including its relation (if any) to your doctoral dissertation. The project description must not exceed 1,500 words.

3. Writing sample. Please submit an example of your scholarly writing, not to exceed 3,500 words (roughly 10 pages).

4. Course Syllabus. Design a two-page syllabus for a course—stemming from your current or proposed work—that you might teach during your concurrent appointment as a Fellow and departmental lecturer.

5. Letters of recommendation. Letters of recommendation should come from two members of the academic profession who are able to state from personal knowledge your qualifications for teaching undergraduates and conducting postdoctoral research. Normally, one of these recommenders is your dissertation director, who, if you have not been awarded the Ph.D., is expected to provide written assurance that you will have the doctorate by 1 July 2010.

6. Interview. Finalists are invited for a personal interview with members of the Society's governing board. Invitations to interview will be extended by mid-December with interviews occurring in January. Applicants who have not been contacted by 1 January 2010 should assume that their candidacy is no longer active.
