In accordance with the requirements of the federal program, work to be performed under this agreement must be work in the public interest, which (1) will not result in the displacement of employed workers or impair existing contracts for services; (2) will be governed by such condition of employment, including compensation, as will be appropriate and reasonable in light of such factors as type of work performed, geographical region, and proficiency of the employee; (3) does not involve the construction, operation or maintenance of so much of any facility as is used, or is to be used, for sectarian instruction or as a place for religious worship; and (4) does not involve any partisan or nonpartisan political activity associated with a candidate, or contending faction or group, in an election for public or party office. Further, no work shall be considered to be in the public interest where (1) it is work for which the political support, affiliation, or affinity of the student is a pre-requisite or consideration for employment; (2) it is work to be performed for an elected official other than as part of the regular administration of federal, state, or local government; or (3) it is work for a membership agency (such as a credit union, a fraternal order, or a cooperative) which is primarily for the benefit of the members of such organizations rather than the public.

This agreement for the 2008-2009 year will continue the current terms and conditions for the Federal Work-Study agreement established between the above-mentioned Agency and the Trustees of Columbia University in the City of New York during a previous year. In 2008-2009 the School of Social Work is required to contribute 40% of the student's hourly salary as provided under Title I, Part C, of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, Public Law 88-452, as amended, and has been amended by the Higher Education Act of 1965, Public Law 89-329, Public Law 92-318 and the Educational Amendments of 1976, Public Law 94-482, the Education Amendments of 1980, Public Law 96-374, and the Higher Education Amendments of 1986, Public Law 102-325, the Higher Education Amendments of 1992, Public Law 99-498, hereinafter referred to as the "Agency", to provide work to eligible students participating in the Federal Work-Study Program.

The agreement shall take effect September 1, 2008, and shall terminate May 31, 2009. Either party may terminate the agreement upon reasonable notice to the other.
