

FIELD OF PRACTICE / SUBSTANTIVE AREA EXAMINATION OR PAPER

APPLICATION

Students: Please print this form, fill it out, and return it to the Doctoral Office.

The Field of Practice/ Substantive Area Examination/Paper is taken after completion of the field of practice tutorial. This 3-hour written examination or paper demands the synthesis of knowledge accumulated in elective courses, guided readings, tutorials, and field experience. Students must demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the research and scholarly literature in the field and its implications for social work practice and policy. The exam is typically given in the fall (in September or October) or in February. The choice of evaluation method is at the discretion of the tutorial professor. See the Doctoral Program Resource Guide for further details.
