My Astrid!

A New Play on the Early Years of Astrid Lindgren

By Vladimir Oravsky & Kurt Peter Larsen

Translated from the Swedish by Verne Moberg
Directed by Robert Greer

7 p.m., Wednesday, November 14, 2007, at Deutsches Haus, 420 W. 116th Street, N.Y.C.

A comedy about the Nobel-nominated Swedish creator of PIPPi LONGSTOCKING, Ronya, the Robber's Daughter, The Brothers Lionheart, and oodles of other adored children's-book characters, in honor of the 100th anniversary of her birth date. A young journalist leaves the idyllic village of Vimmerby for a mysterious mission to Copenhagen and a secretarial career in Stockholm's roaring 1920s. A play reading featuring our favorite actors.

The public is invited, and admission is free.

Co-sponsored by the Swedish Women's Educational Association-New York, the American-Scandinavian Foundation, and Columbia's Institute for the Study of Europe.
