SIGRID & ISAAC: SCREENING THE DOCUMENTARY AND MEETING THE FILMMAKER

This beautiful documentary from Sweden tells the story of a remarkable artist couple-- Sigrid Hjertén (1885-1948) and Isaac Grünewald (1889-1946)--who led fascinating lives and played a key role in early 20th century Swedish art history. Director/author Anders Wahlgren will be present to discuss the film after the screening. He has published a book on this subject (Sigrid & Isaac, Prisma, 2007) and also directed other films about artists and served as cultural editor on Swedish Radio. In 2007 Sigrid & Isaac received the Jury Award in the Creative Crossroads section of the International Festival of Films on Art in Montreal, Canada.
