20th Century Tibetan History

Gray Tuttle

Spring 2007 Day/Time: Wed 2:10pm-4:00pm Location: 500C Kent Hall

Course overview:

This course is designed for students interested in gaining a broad view of Tibetan history in the 20th century. We will cover the institutional history of major Tibetan state institutions and their rivals in the Tibetan borderlands, as well as the relations with China, Britain, and America. Discussion sessions throughout the semester will focus on important historical issues.
